

The Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ, agency, or commission) adopts the repeal of §80.271.

The proposed repeal was published in the December 25, 2015, issue of the Texas Register (40 TexReg 9494).

Background and Summary of the Factual Basis for the Adopted Rule

This rulemaking is adopted to implement Senate Bill (SB) 1267 adopted by the 84th Texas Legislature (2015), with an effective date of September 1, 2015. SB 1267 amends the Texas Administrative Procedure Act (APA), codified in Texas Government Code, Chapter 2001, which is applicable to all state agencies. SB 1267 revises and creates numerous requirements related to notice of contested case hearings (CCHs) and agency decisions, signature and timeliness of agency decisions, presumption of the date that notice of an agency decision is received, motions for rehearing regarding agency decisions, and the procedures for judicial review of agency decisions. Rulemaking implementing SB 1267, Sections 4, 6, 7, and 9 was adopted by the commission on December 9, 2015, in 30 Texas Administrative Code (TAC) Chapter 1, Purpose of Rules, General Provisions; Chapter 50, Action on Applications and Other Authorizations; Chapter 55, Requests for Reconsideration and Contested Case Hearings; Public Comment; Chapter 70, Enforcement; and Chapter 80, Contested Case Hearings (Rule Project No. 2015-018-080-LS). The applicable rule, §80.272, was amended by the commission on December 9, 2015, and applies to motions for rehearing for CCHs regarding permit applications.

In corresponding rulemaking published in this issue of the Texas Register, the commission adopts the amendments to §35.29 and §55.255, which will complete the rulemaking necessary to implement SB 1267.

Section Discussion

Section 80.271 is adopted for repeal because the changes adopted by the commission on December 9, 2015, to §80.272 make §80.271 obsolete.

Final Regulatory Impact Analysis Determination

The commission reviewed the rulemaking action in light of the regulatory analysis requirements of Texas Government Code, §2001.0225, and determined that the action is not subject to Texas Government Code, §2001.0225, because it does not meet the definition of a "major environmental rule" as defined in that statute. A "major environmental rule" is a rule the specific intent of which is to protect the environment or reduce risks to human health from environmental exposure, and that may adversely affect in a material way the economy, a sector of the economy, productivity, competition, jobs, the environment, or the public health and safety of the state or a sector of the state. The adopted repeal of §80.271 is not specifically intended to protect the environment or reduce risks to human health from environmental exposure. Rather, §80.271 is obsolete.

The rulemaking is procedural in nature and does not affect in a material way the economy, a sector of the economy, productivity, competition, jobs, the environment, or the public health and safety of the state or a sector of the state.

As defined in the Texas Government Code, §2001.0225 only applies to a major environmental rule, the result of which is to: exceed a standard set by federal law, unless the rule is specifically required by state law; exceed an express requirement of state law, unless the rule is specifically required by federal law; exceed a requirement of a delegation agreement or contract between the state and an agency or representative of the federal government to implement a state and federal program; or adopt a rule solely under the general powers of the agency instead of under a specific state law. This rulemaking action does not meet any of these four applicability requirements of a "major environmental rule." Specifically, the adopted repeal of §80.271 is necessary to complete the implementation of SB 1267 by removing an obsolete rule. The repealed rule, §80.271, is procedural in nature and does not directly impact the cost of CCHs. This adopted rulemaking action does not exceed an express requirement of state law or a requirement of a delegation agreement, and was not developed solely under the general powers of the agency, but was specifically developed to meet the requirements of the law described in the Statutory Authority section of this rulemaking.

The commission invited public comment regarding the draft regulatory impact analysis determination during the public comment period. No comments were received on the regulatory impact analysis determination.

Takings Impact Assessment

The commission evaluated the adopted rulemaking and performed an assessment of whether Texas Government Code, Chapter 2007, is applicable. The primary purpose of the adopted rulemaking is to repeal an obsolete rule, §80.271. This is necessary to complete the implementation of SB 1267. Section 80.271 is procedural in nature and does not directly impact the cost of CCHs. Promulgation and enforcement of the adopted rulemaking will not burden private real property. The adopted repeal of §80.271 does not affect private property in a manner that restricts or limits an owner's right to the property that would otherwise exist in the absence of a governmental action. Consequently, this rulemaking action does not meet the definition of a taking under Texas Government Code, §2007.002(5).

Consistency with the Coastal Management Program

The commission reviewed the adopted repeal of §80.271 and found that it is neither identified in Coastal Coordination Act Implementation Rules, 31 TAC §505.11(b)(2) or (4), nor will the repeal affect any action or authorization identified in Coastal Coordination Act Implementation Rules, 31 TAC §505.11(a)(6). Therefore, the adopted rule repeal is not subject to the Texas Coastal Management Program (CMP).

The commission invited public comment regarding the consistency with the CMP during the public comment period. No comments were received on the CMP.

Public Comment

The commission held a public hearing on January 26, 2016. The comment period closed on January 29, 2016. The commission received no comments on the proposed rulemaking.
